MAIN AWARDS OF THE YEAR

Grand Award of the Year

The Grand Award of the Year will be granted to the organisation that successfully meets all the following requirements*:

- Submission of the highest number of entries within Organisational Category - Grand Awards
- The organisation should obtain the highest average score across the above entries in the year

This award highlights the entry that serves as the most outstanding example of best practice in action, inspiring Hong Kong HR practitioners with new ideas to help them excel in their profession. In arriving at their decision, the judges will look for projects that have produced outstanding results with a far-reaching impact and meaningful contribution to the HR community.

The winning project should be able to show what can be accomplished through passion, dedication, and a commitment to helping and developing its people.

The Judge Panel has the right to make the final decision.*

Excellent HR Leader Award

This distinguished award will be nominated by the Executive Council of the HKIHRM.

This prestigious award recognises an individual who exemplifies excellent HRM professionalism, enhances the influence of the HRM profession and has made an outstanding contribution to the HR community.

HR CAREER LADDER

TERMS & CONDITIONS

- Past entrants including awardees and finalists are eligible to enter the HR Excellence Awards 2026/27.
- Organisations/individuals of the Awards Organising Committee, judging panel, sponsors, supporting organisations, and media partners are eligible to enter the Awards.
- Projects involving external consultants are eligible to enter the Awards. Nevertheless, the role of such external consultants should be justified and clearly stated.
- If an initiative/project submitted for entry by a service provider was designed for its client(s), a written endorsement from the relevant client(s) is required.
- Each entry must be submitted under one organisation only. One award trophy will be presented per entry, and the name displayed on the trophy will correspond to the submitting organisation.
- For entries involving collaborative projects with multiple organisations, the submitting organisation must provide written endorsement(s) from the other participating organisation(s), confirming their involvement in the project. Such endorsement(s) must be submitted together with the award entry.
- The entire copyright, moral right, and all other intellectual property rights of whatsoever nature in the materials supplied by the Awards entrants shall continue to belong to the Awards entrants. These rights are not affected by the entrant's entry into the Awards.
- Names and details of entrants, submitted reports, presentation materials, and scoring information developed during the review of entries are regarded as proprietary and are kept confidential. Such information is available only to those individuals directly involved in the assessment and administrative processes. Where necessary, any contact person's name and position, telephone number, fax number, and email address, etc., will be used by HKIHRM for liaison with relevant entrants in relation to the Awards activities.
- The HKIHRM may request supplementary information from entrants during the judging process. Verification of data submitted by entrants may be required.
- Entrants agree to cooperate with the HKIHRM in relation to any publicity of their entries as may be required. Commercial sensitivity will be respected.
- The decision made by HKIHRM and the judging panel is final and binding on all aspects related to the Awards.
- No feedback or advice on entries will be provided to the entrants or finalists.
- The Awards are non-transferable and non-negotiable. No cash alternative will be offered.
- The HKIHRM reserves the right to withhold the award(s) in all categories, subject to the discretion of the Organising Committee and the judging panel.
- The entry fee is non-refundable, non-transferable and shall be settled within THREE (3) weeks after submitting the entry form. Only entries with completed payment will be considered successful applications. The HKIHRM takes no responsibility for any incidental costs incurred by entrants.
- The HKIHRM reserves the right to interpret, alter or amend any of these conditions and to issue supplementary conditions and house rules at any time it considers necessary.
